Athletics Hold Record World's Series Batting

New York, Sept. 28.—The highest batting average by a team in the world's series games since 1906 was made by the Philadelphia Athletics in the series of 1910 against the Chicago Cubs. Connie Mack's organization of youthful stars batted .317 in that year, 98 points better than the Cubs.

It is a significant fact that the pennant winning Cub teams of other days were great fielding organizations, and in all their world's series, excepting that of 1910, they outbit their opponents. This was noticeable in the 1918 series against the Red Sox, and although the Cubs lost they batted, as a team, .216 against the Sox .186. The Sox batted remarkably in the series, however, having only one error chalked against them, with a fielding average of .994. This, by the way, was the best fielding performance of any team in a world's series since 1905.

In 1906, the Chicago Cubs outbit the Chicago Americans by four points and outfielded them 22 points, but they lost the series. Their punches were not delivered at the moments when they would have resulted in runs.

The Giants outbit the Red Sox by 50 points in the great series of 1912, but lost.

The following table shows the team batting and fielding averages in the world's series since 1905.

BOWLING AT Y. M. C. A.

Tournament to Be Organized and Teams Entered in State Contest.

Plans are going forward at the Y. M. C. A. for a bowling tournament this fall and winter. It is hoped to have ten five man teams. The first games will be rolled October 10. All members interested are asked by Secretary Lange to sign up as soon as possible so that the number to compete can be ascertained, the teams picked, and the schedule arranged.

The Y. M. C. A. also plans to enter two teams in the annual tournament of the New York State Y. M. C. A. Bowling association. Games will be rolled on the local alleys and the scores sent to the association headquarters. At the close of the tournament the four leading teams will meet at a designated place and decide the night for first place. The team entered by the local association made a creditable showing last year and it is hoped this season to put a stronger team in the field and make a real bid for first honors.

Employment.

Nothing ties a foreign-born workman to a town or a job as much as a house to live in and a truck patch to work. It is a wholly American illusion that the foreign-born love shacks and barracks and boarders. Many of them buy lots at the first opportunity, but they have not the money to build houses except on really easy terms.—Esther Everett Lape.

SIX YEARS IN FROZEN NORTH

Canadian Mounted Police Corporal Returns From Arctic With 2 Eskimo Murderers.

PATROLLED CORONATION GULF

Expects to Return to Solitude After Short Holiday at Home—Punishment of Criminals Makes Natives Respect White Man's Law.

Montreal.—In May, 1915, Corporal Cornelius of the Royal Northwest mounted police left Edmonton for Herschel Island. He departed quietly, without any flourish of trumpets. He returned the other day to civilization again for the first time, as silently as he had left it. Over six years of his life has been spent in the Arctic wilderness. Four of them in the sole company of two Eskimo murderers, sentenced in 1914, and freed by order of the government later.

Two years were passed at Fort McPherson, where the big supply of provisions and building material were disposed, comfortable winter quarters established, and patrols of the surrounding country undertaken.

The two Eskimo murderers were taken out by the corporal and offered their freedom were so much taken with the ways of the white man that they asked permission to enter the service of the police, and were both engaged, much to their delight. They rendered great service as guides and interpreters, and the white man's law has never had a better advertisement in the Arctic circle than that given to it by these two men, tried, punished and released by its officials as a warning to others.

Two Years in Wilds.

In 1917 Corporal Cornelius was joined by Constable Brockie and the two set out for Herschel Island where they spent two years with frequent patrols in the far corners of the uncharted wilds. Their next move was along the shores of the Arctic to Coronation gulf, a dog sled trip of some 800 miles, where another two years were passed in patrols to Bathurst Inlet, Kent peninsula. All points on the south and west sides of Victoria Island to Victoria Land and Prince Albert sound were made during that period.

The final trip was taken from Coronation gulf via Bear lake to Fort Norman, down the river to Fort McPherson, then north to Herschel Island, and back by the coast to Coronation gulf once more, with another return trip via Herschel Island through Fort McPherson up the Mackenzie river and home by the summer steamer. This latter trip was taken by dog sled a distance of 1,100 miles being covered in about 2,500 miles.

New headquarters were met at Fort Epworth, the patrol, accompanied by Staff Sergeant Clay, establishing this post. The party lived in snow huts for the greater part of this time, and subsisted on the simple diet of the wilds eked out by such rations as they were able to carry on sleds. They built a wooden hut at Fort Epworth, however, and enjoyed a mild taste of civilization.

Two Are Acquitted.

In 1918, two alleged Eskimo murderers were brought in by the coast route by Sergeant Conway. These two men, Kayugana and Komuk, had been tried by Inspector Phillips for the murder of an Eskimo woman, whom both of them claimed as wife. They were, however, acquitted, owing to lack of evidence, and Clay, Cornelius and Brockie took them back by way of Herschel Island and the Arctic to Coronation gulf, where the two were allowed to rejoin their tribes.

Corporal Cornelius says that the trial of the four Eskimos had had an excellent effect on the general conduct of the tribes as a whole, while conduct of the four principals has been most exemplary. Kayugana and Komuk were seen several times on later patrols, their bands being usually found on the ice at the head of the Coppermine river, and each time the patrol received a warm welcome.

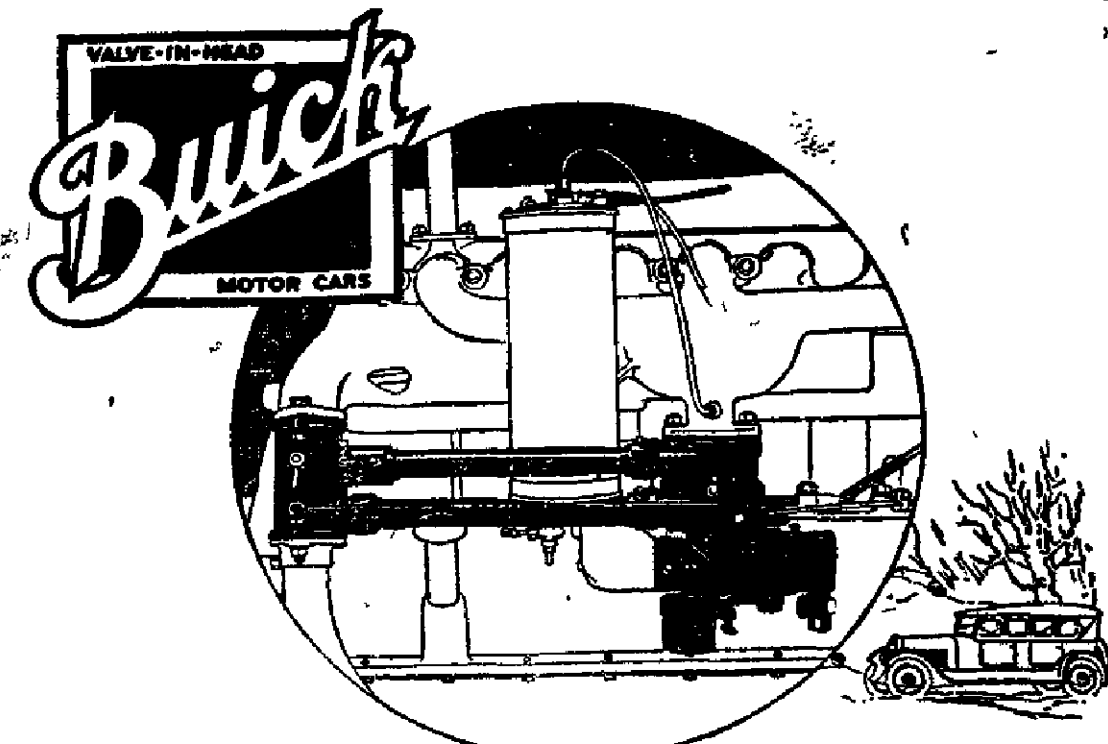

Despite their years of isolation and hardships both Corporal Cornelius and Constable Brockie are looking forward to a return to the North in the near future. They will now enjoy a well earned holiday, and both are leaving at once for their respective homes, Cornelius going to Halifax and Brockie to Winnipeg.

Hop Market in Scholastic.

An active trade in hops is reported from the various centers of consumption, package distributors doing a big business and buying on a larger scale than heretofore. In view of the short crop in all hop growing sections at home and abroad and the small amount carried over from last year, a strong tone to the market is noted. Sales of new have been made on the coast at 30c. In this country two sales have been made, T. E. Dornet buying the Frank Warner crop at Scholastic and the VanDusen crop at Cobleskill paying 40c. The crop in this State is but 5,000 bales, California 80,000, Oregon 50,000, Washington 30,000 a total of 165,000 bales.

Scholastic Democratic Committee. At a regular meeting of the newly elected Democratic County committee of Scholastic county held at the hotel Augustan, Cobleskill, last Saturday, the following officers were elected. Chairman, Alfredo Rurhans of Carlisle; vice chairman, Wm. H. Golding, Cobleskill; secretary, Walter Dine, Middleburgh; treasurer, John R. Hance, of Putnam. A resolution was passed to have the rules of the committee amended so as to elect a man and a woman committeeman in each district at the next primary election. The present women committee is retained as joint members of the committee.

Glenn Pickens of Schuyler Lake to Be Laid Away Tomorrow.

Schuyler Lake, Sept. 28. — A fatal shooting accident occurred Sunday at about noon when Glenn, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pickens, accidentally shot himself with a shot gun in the woods near his home on Pigeon hill. It seems that the lad, in company with his brother, Ernest, was hunting and in climbing a tree accidentally discharged the gun. The full charge entered the abdomen and came out the back, tearing a large hole so that the intestines protruded. The charge also tore one hand and arm to pieces, severing the cords.

Dr. M. F. Lee was called and rendered first aid and the lad was hurried to Thanksgiving hospital, where everything possible was done, but he died Monday at 2 p. m. It has been impossible to learn just how the accident happened for the lad was rendered unconscious, but on Monday he regained consciousness and we hear that he told his mother how it happened, as she was called early Monday morning to his bedside where she with the father, who accompanied the boy there Sunday, remained until the end.

The fortune of Canada, greatest of modern Italian singers, is moderately estimated at a million and a quarter of dollars. From records alone he is said to have received $200,000 yearly.
No one, not even Patti, with her numerous baronets, appears to have been able to turn his notes into bank notes so readily.The Chicago police, who confiscated red liquor, sold it and then confiscated it again, had such an eye for business as put the offending bootlegger to shame. New York newspapers which have filled their columns daily with the alleged misdeeds of Enright should be willing to admit the superior veracity of the Chicago man of the attack.The declaration of Lloyd George that there should be a national scheme for co-operation for the relief of unemployment, is applicable as much to the United States as to England. If there is not work enough to go around, it would seem judicious to make shorter shifts in many occupations, giving everybody a chance to earn something at least until there is a business revival. When that time comes, and it does not seem very far distant, there will be work for everybody.A leading physician of England, writing to the London Times, says that the determination to live is the greatest foe of illness. He is a great mistake if one is subject to some chronic malady. Not only is the business of life apt to be neglected, but the malady is likely to be made worse by the worry of the patient. The Londoner evidently would assert, in forgetfulness.It would appear that the principal defense of Harry Arbutic in his notorious case was the fact that he was a witness for the prosecution.
This is perfectly natural, since nobody would expect that the eyewitness to the crime in the Arbutic apartment would have been a clergyman, professor in colleges, statesmen, judges or women and men of unquestioned uprightness of character. The witness in this case was taken from the class in which the defendant traveled, since no others could have been present or could have known anything about it.The workers in the German Aniline

LEAGUE MAY BUY MILK PLANT

Reported Immediate Transfer of Nestle Cooperstown Property to Dairymen's Organization — Nestle Milk May Be Shipped to Oneonta.The Freeman's Journal of yesterday has the following which will be of interest to many dairymen in Otsego county:"While up to the present time the contract transferring the Cooperstown plant of the Nestle Food company to the Dairymen's League Co-operative association has not been signed it is probable that the transfer of the property will take place before another issue of The Journal goes to press and thus the milk war in and about Cooperstown will come to a peaceful end.""Since the Nestle company discontinued condensing at the local plant October 1, 1920, the battle has continued, some patrons sending their milk to the local plant and others, members of the Dairymen's league, shipping to Phoenix Mills, Fly Creek and other nearby points.""It is rumored that the Dairymen's league will begin condensing about October 15, at which time the local members of the league will bring their milk to Cooperstown. The Nestle company has stated several times that in case the Cooperstown plant is sold they would take care of their present patrons and these will no doubt ship their milk to Oneonta, where the Nestle company has a plant.""The history of the milk situation here is well known to every dairymen and business man and everyone will be pleased to see a peaceful solution of the difficulty.""Negotiations for the sale of the plant were begun last December with the Cooperstown Chamber of Commerce acting as the third party. They proved fruitless but this summer the matter was again taken up and this time it appears that they will be successful."Carey Green Farm Sold.
The Carey Green farm, located on the road between Laurens and Wilber lake and containing 250 acres of good land, with excellent buildings, was sold yesterday to Charles Kollgaard of Catham, Columbia county, who will take possession November 1. The sale, which includes not only the farm but all stock and farm implements, was made through H. Lund of

The circle of the West End Baptist church held its first meeting of the fall season in the church parlors last evening. There was a large attendance of members and visitors. Several important matters of business were discussed and acted upon, after which there was a short literary and musical program followed by light refreshments and a social hour. The evening was much enjoyed by all.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

The Price of a Lunch.

Germany's ceremonial statement for the traceless sinking of the two Argentine vessels, provocative of world-wide comment in 1917, is likely to lead to the observation that Germany got off easily. For the loss of the two vessels, the Toro and the Moque, Argentina receives a salute, a handshake and a lunch.
In answer to which extravagant demonstration of contribution and impressive indemnity, Dr. Molin, chief of the Argentine delegation, told off to eat the lunch, declared that his government was highly gratified, and this had afforded his country full satisfaction.—[Philadelphia Ledger.

Reciprocal Relations.

As for the tariff bill, also, it seems probable that the senate will make striking changes in the house bill. The tariff has changed the tariff relations of nations, and while in the main the protective principle is stronger than ever before, the United States may find it profitable to modify the application of the principle in detail. Certainly the power of the President to negotiate reciprocal arrangements should be made ample.—[Washington Star.

The Great Explosions.

The three great explosions are the blowing up of munitions on the Black Tom pier, which was probably the work of a German; the explosion of a munition ship in Halifax harbor as the result of an accidental collision with another steamer, and the destruction of the great chemical factory at Oppau. The loss of life at Black Tom was relatively small. The property damage was greater at Halifax, and probably the loss of life was greater there, though it is not yet known how many were killed at Oppau. If 4,000 tons of explosive chemicals were stored at Oppau very bad judgment was shown.—[Philadelphia Record.

A Senatorial Candidacy.

It had been supposed, and even stated in the press, that Senator Kellogg, of Minnesota, would not seek re-election.
His old clients and associates would welcome him back to the practice of the law, and it had been suggested that he did not altogether relish the duties of public life. However, Kellogg's visit to St. Paul, Minn., announced that he would be a candidate next year to succeed himself.—[New York Times.

Turkish Plotters.

The British government never made any effort to get hold of Enver Talat and Djemal, though it had threatened to hold them personally responsible for Turkish atrocities in the war, and the Turks may feel that the British demand for the conspirators who were going to massacre the Armenians and turn Constantinople over to Mustafa Kamal can be safely ignored.Probably it cannot be. It is one thing to massacre a million Armenians and it is quite another thing to conspire against the life of a British official.The guns of the British warships are trained on Constantinople, the Gordon Highlanders have raided the quarters of Nationalist societies, and there is a large British force at general headquarters.This time the Turks have got to hang somebody or surrender some of their own people probably innocent and tried by an Allied military commission.—[Philadelphia Record.

The Oppau Disaster.

Even those whose feeling towards Germany and the Germans is unfriendly must shudder at the explosion at the village of Oppau. The death toll and the horror of the blast are shocking. Humanity may be divided on many things, but misfortune makes us all akin, and sorrow will be felt for these unfortunates and those they leave behind. Just what such a horror brings may be seen in the attitude of the French military forces. Occupying German territory as a military measure and perhaps the most irreconcilable of those entire assistance of the victims, they gaged in the late war, they rushed to and engaged at once in rescue work, while French medical men attached to the force view with the German doctors in aiding the injured. Things like these help restore faith in the underlying goodness of humanity, a faith often dimmed by exhibitions of human weakness.—[Rochester Post-Express.

The Belief in a Flat Earth.

Belief in a flat earth is not confined to pre-Columbian times. It exists widely today. Several years ago a professional man whose business placed him in contact with people of every sort made the question of the earth's shape a part of a psychological test.
In the land where everywhere is cast the shadow of a public school he found a surprisingly large number of persons who professed belief of a flat earth. In comparatively few cases the opinion was positive; in the minds of an overwhelming majority it was merely a vague notion for which neither reason nor argument could be given. In other words, these were cases of stagnant mind — all in the same class with those who had learned to read and, for want of exercise, had forgotten how.—[New York Herald.

Panama Canal Tolls.

The Hay-Pauncefote treaty with Great Britain under the terms of which the United States constructed the canal, reads: "The canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and war of all nations obey-ing these rules, on terms of entire equality, so that there shall be no discrimination against any such nation, or its citizens or subjects in respect of the conditions or charges of traffic, or otherwise."Nothing could be clearer than that Efforts to interpret it as meaning equal tolls for all nations except the United States are obviously forced and unbecoming. Our national honor is pledged.—[Chicago Tribune.

Darrow House at Richfield Sold.

Allan Calvert has sold his hotel formerly the Darrow House, to Frank Pelcyer of Brooklyn, possession to be given within thirty days. The purchase price was $15,000. Mr.
Pelcyer is said to be a man of considerable means. He will conduct the house as a summer hotel. Much in the way of improvement is planned including running hot water in every room. Mr. Calvert says the proposed changes will cost nearly $20,000.

Only One of Three Races Finished, Is Carried On by Saratoga Horse.Cobleskill, Sept. 28. — The expression "Wednesday, the biggest day," might well be used in referring to the attendance at the Cobleskill fair today. A conservative estimate places the number at 28,000—five to eight thousand in excess of last year. It is also stated by one of the fair officials that there are more automobiles on the ground this year than last.The crowd began to assemble as early as 5 o'clock this morning, and from then until after 2 o'clock, a steady stream of visitors were wending their way to the grounds. While thousands of the people came by auto and many horse-drawn conveyances, a greater number than usual arrived on the regular and special D. & H. trains. With the parking placed on the grounds filled with autos, and hundreds of them scattered about the streets and available yards of the village, the line extended in some instances beyond the corporate limits.
It is believed, also, that the threatening weather during the forenoon had a tendency to keep many visitors at home. However, the rain held off and the crowd was apparently enjoying the exhibition to the fullest extent, everyone taking the joking good naturedly. "Big business" was in evidence everywhere. The grand stand, the new bleachers erected this year with a seating capacity of about 4,500, was taxed to the limit.Up to a late hour this afternoon, with thousands of people and autos moving in every direction, no accidents of any consequence had been reported, due to the vigilance of the local police and state troopers.

TO SEEK OIL IN BROOME.

More Than a Thousand Acres Acquired by George W. Hilsinger.More than a thousand acres of land in the town of Barker three weeks ago so that he now has more than 2,000 acres upon which he agrees to drill one well on each farm within three years to a depth of 3,000 feet.
It is evident from the leases that the local man intends to sink oil wells in the future on the large tract and start operations that he believes will lead to the discovery of oil in Broome county.As the terms of the leases filed yesterday, Mr. Hilsinger agrees with each property owner to start operations and in return for the privilege of conducting the work on the owners' property he will give one eighth part of the product to the property owners. The farmers allow him to drill only within a certain distance of any building on the farms and he is given a road right for access to the proposed wells.

APPEAL FOR COUNTY KIDS.

Some Boys and Girls at Home Need Clothing—Can You Help?"Charity begins at home." Miss Hazel Foster, agent for the Otsego County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, says there is an urgent need of clothing in Otsego for school children from five to fourteen years of age.While the need is doubtless acute in Russia, Armenia and other foreign countries the children of Otsego county should not have to attend school without proper warm clothing and good shoes. The suit that your kid wore last year and is backed by the attic or the shoe which he outgrew will help to send some little one to school happy in the fact that he can discard the coat, three sizes too large for him he has been wearing, and the shoes run over on the side so that they are deforming his feet.Otsego county has never yet been called upon for charity but what responds in a most noble manner and should be large. Help the kids.Seasoned slab wood $3 per cord de-arranged for a big movie show at his theatre Saturday evening "Folly of the Circus" will be presented, starring Mae Marsh, and any child bringing an old tin can will be admitted. The cans must represent an effort toward the cleaning up of the city. They must be obtained from some unsightly rub-dump, which will be watched for youngsters who might try to cheat.Large containers will be placed in

LOCAL MENTION

The Ladies' auxiliary of St. James' church held a meeting yesterday at the rectory for the purpose of appointing committees and arranging the work of the year. There was a good attendance and much interest was shown.

Arrangements have been made whereby the Oneonta lodge of Elks will use the B. of E. hall for meeting purposes until their new home is completed. The first meeting of the lodge in these quarters will be held Wednesday, Oct. 5.

The regular monthly tuberculosis clinic will be held this afternoon at the Community house, Ford avenue, from 1 to 5 o'clock. Dr. F. L. Winsor, superintendent of the county tuberculosis hospital, will be in charge of the clinic.

W. A. Shafer of Lower Chestnut street was awarded the prize for the best decorated industrial float in the floral parade at the Binghamton Industrial Exposition yesterday. Mr. Shafer won second place in the farm float at the Oneonta fair.

J. A. Dewar, local agent for the Cadillac and Buick motor cars, has received one of the motor cars, Cadillac touring car and like each succeeding model of that make has some improvements and niceties which surprise even the satisfied owners of Cadillacs.

Motorists are reporting an unusual large number of flocks of large size in the streets, especially in the West End section. The circumstances indicate that they have been placed in the street maliciously as they are quite uniformly new flocks. Anyone having definite information is requested to inform the police department or the officers of the Oneonta Automobile club.

DENTAL CLINIC A SUCCESS.

Many School Children Take Advantage of Service Offered.

The first dental clinic for school children of the city, held at the Community house yesterday afternoon, was a pronounced success. Sixteen children being examined by Dr. L. S. Delamater and Miss Ruth Relyea. Work was done on the teeth of six of these examined. Most of the children came alone and seemed eager to have their mouths examined. A remarkable fact when it is considered that children are usually as afraid of a dentist as an adult is of a tax collector.

Clinics will be held every Wednesday and Saturday during the school year from 1 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Appointments should be made through the school nurses. Although teeth examination will gladly be given to all school children who apply, it is expected that only those whose parents cannot afford to pay for the service, will ask to have work done on their teeth.

Delegates Arrive in City.

Last evening's trains brought many delegates to the city to attend the convention of the state organization of the Ladies' Society to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, which will be held today in Dreamland hall. It is expected by local officials of the order that more than 150 delegates and visitors from all parts of the state will be present at the meeting.

Meetings Today.

The Social club of the Chapin Memorial church will be entertained in the church parlors this evening. Supper will be served at 7 o'clock, followed by a social time. Hostesses, Mrs. Copeland, Misses Dayton, Curtis, Hill and Gaylord. All members and their friends are invited.

Registration Days.

For the towns and villages of this section the registration days for the approaching election are Oct. 15 and 22. In the city of Oneonta the dates are Oct. 14 and 15 and 21 and 22. Nov. 8 is the date of the election.

We wish to announce to our patrons that beginning today we will start serving lunches at 7 a. m. COLUMBUS DAY PLANS Italian-American Citizens Club Arranging Elaborate Program—Fireworks, Parade And Dance to be Features of Celebration—Prominent Men Invited to Speak.

Plans announced by the Italian-American Citizens Club for the observance of Columbus day, October 15, indicate that the celebration of this anniversary this year will far exceed in size and interest those of previous years. A committee, headed by A. Angellio, has been hard at work for several weeks and has made considerable progress with the plans, although all details have not yet been arranged.

The plans include a field day in the afternoon and in the evening a band concert, a parade of fraternal and civic organizations, a mammoth display of fireworks, the latter to be preceded by speeches by various prominent men, and a dance. It has not yet been decided where the events will be held but it is hoped to secure the ball park because of the excellent facilities for spectators there.

The speakers will include Governor Nathan Miller and Congressman John D. Clarke if it is possible to get them here. No reply has been received from the invitation sent Governor Miller but Congressman Clarke has given assurance that he will be present if he can possibly do so. It is assumed that the display of fireworks will be the most elaborate ever seen in the city. The companies secured to give the display are the Empire Fire Works Co. and the Imperial Fire Works Co., both of Schenectady. They will compete for prize, the judges to be Justice A. L. Kellogg, Assemblyman J. C. Smith, Mayor A. E. Ceperley, Hon. Charles Smith, and Congressman John D. Clarke, if he is present.

Invitations have been sent to all the fraternal and civic organizations in the city asking them to take part in the parade which will be held prior to the display of fireworks. Both the Company G band, and Keeton's Oneonta band have been secured for that event. The dance to follow the fireworks will be held in either Dreamland hall or the State Armory.

OPENING SERVICE TONIGHT

Bishop Berry Arrived Yesterday Afternoon from Mt. Vernon, Ill., and Commenced Series of Meetings at First Methodist Church Tonight.

Bishop J. F. Berry of the Philadelphia area of the Methodist Episcopal church and one of the leaders of that denomination, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, coming here direct from Mt. Vernon, Ill., where he earlier in the week closed an annual conference over which he had presided. He had experienced a strenuous week and was weary after the long ride across half the continent. He will, however, after a day's rest at the parsonage of the First church, be in readiness for the ten days of special meetings at the local church which he is to conduct.

The first service will be held this evening commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The bishop is to deliver, during his stay here the same series of sermons that he delivered at Ocean Grove, N. J., where he addressed thousands the past summer. His theme for tonight is to be "The Kingdom of God," said to be one of his most eloquent and appealing sermons.

Dr. Johns has arranged for a chorus choir and the hymns will be taken from the church hymnal—to which Bishop Berry is devoted, he being fond of the standard hymns of the old writers. Music will be a feature of each service and the meetings will be hoped result in much of profit to the members of the First church and many others who attend.

Dr. Johns wishes to announce that the invitation is general to all to embrace this opportunity to hear one of the foremost men of Methodism and of the evangelical church of the world. Members of other churches and those not affiliated with any church will be cordially welcomed and will be benefited he confidently trusts.

Owing to the fact he will speak here for ten days consecutively and his other duties, his correspondence being large, he will be unable to attend the Ministerial association gathering, which commences today at Harpersville.

MERCHANTS' CONFERENCE

Committee Yesterday Planned Oneonta Meeting in December—Speakers of Prominence, Dinner and Discussion.

At the end of the Merchants' conference held in Oneonta in January last, a committee representing six interested organizations in Otsego county was named to take charge of any work of similar nature which should be undertaken this fall or winter. A meeting of this committee was held yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in this city and tentative plans were considered for a second meeting, it being believed that the session of last winter was in every way so successful as to justify a continuance of the work.

At the meeting yesterday S. C. Laurien represented the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce, Frank A. Harriott the Merchants' association of Oneonta, Bruce Hall the Cooperstown Chamber of Commerce, Prof. James Boyle the Department of Rural Economics of the College of Agriculture, and Floyd S. Barlow the Farm Bureau and County Improvement association. It was decided that the conference would be held in Oneonta, the tentative plan being to have it begin on the evening of the Tuesday in December on which the annual meeting of the Farm and Home Bureau is held, and to make the program one of interest not only to merchants but alike to farmers and their wives, many of whom, it is believed, would remain in the city for the conference. That evening and the morning of the following day it is planned to have a man of the calibre of Frank Stockdale of Chicago, whose talks last January were so instructive and inspiring, to give addresses.

On the morning of Wednesday, it is proposed to have a round table council for merchants alone. In the afternoon, in addition to the merchant specialist, there will probably be talks by Prof. Boyle and by a representative of the Home Economics department of the College of Agriculture. Dinner on Wednesday will be for merchants and clerks alike, and if possible there will be motion pictures which will have a bearing on the problems of merchandising.

While the conference is planned to help merchants in a technical way, the big effort will be to bring merchant and consumer, and in particular farmers and their families, into a clearer understanding of their mutual interests. A more definite announcement of the plans for the conference will be made at a later date.

FRIDAY IS TRADE DAY.

Probably Last of Season—Everybody Should Take Advantage.

Friday of this week is Trade day in Oneonta—the seventh and probably the last of the season. From the beginning these days have been successful, attracting a large number of customers alike from city and surrounding country. The page of Trade day prices which appears this morning should be perused by every reader who is looking for genuine bargains in articles really valuable and worth while. These bargains, however, are by no means the only ones offered. They are rather in the way of specimens, indicating what the stores have to offer. If what you want is not in the list, be sure that it is in some of the stores and at reasonable prices.

NO WAGE CUT ON D. & H.

Agreement Effective to Sept. 1 Still in Force, Former Wages and Conditions Effective at Present.

The Railroad Labor Board has not yet been requested by the heads of the Delaware & Hudson railroad to consider reductions in the wages of its employees or changes in the working agreements which expired on Sept. 1. It was learned today, says the Binghamton Press. On this road along former wages and conditions still prevail.

The grievances of all railroads relative to wages and working conditions submitted in detail to the Labor Board previous to June 1 were considered and passed on within one month, certain carriers being authorized to decrease the rates of their employees on July 1. Heads of the Delaware & Hudson road in this city consulted on the matter at that time, expressed belief that their superiors had applied to the Labor Board for revision of the wage terms of 1920 but because of agreements in working conditions and wages with the men the changes would not become effective until Sept. 1.

Whether the heads of the road are preparing or contemplating submitting requests for wage reductions to the board has not been determined definitely but it is not expected that such action will be taken until after the result of the strike vote has been made public and some sort of an agreement is reached.

Employees of the D. & H. associated with the maintenance of way department and the freight department, it is said, as compared with 45 cents an hour for similar classes on the D. L. & W. and Erie railroads under the reduction ordered by the Labor Board and in effect since July 1.

WILL FACE MURDER CHARGE

George Hayward, Suspected of Murder of Harry P. Weidman, to Be Taken to Scranton for a Hearing Soon.

It is probable that George Hayward of Syracuse, charged with the murder of Harry P. Weidman, will be taken to Scranton for a hearing within the next few days. Captain of Detectives Alfred I. Souder of Philadelphia, where Hayward has been held in connection with the alleged theft of an automobile, has notified the Scranton Police authorities that Hayward would be turned over to them shortly. No mention was made in the message as to what disposition has been made of the automobile theft charge upon which Hayward was extradited from New York state.

The Scranton police are still searching for Walter Smith, against whom a charge of murder has also been made. It is believed that he is in Philadelphia.

It has not yet been decided whether Hayward will be given a hearing on the murder charge as soon as he is brought to Scranton. The police are in hopes of capturing Smith very soon and they feel that when they have him and Hayward in their net they will have gone a long way towards the solution of the crime.

Wells' "Theory of the Origin of Christianity" by Rev. C. B. Henry, on "The Future of the Race" by Rev. G. G. Sumner, on "Music in the Church" by Rev. George Williams and on the "Future of Sidney Grove" by Rev. A. D. Finch. Organized play activities, which are coming to have an increasing part in the work of the church, will also have part in the session, a demonstration being led by Rev. S. S. Robbins and Rev. J. L. Wilson. The sermon this evening will be by Rev. E. W. Dix of Cooperstown.

Failed to Report Accident.

John E. Little of Deansburg, who was arrested Monday on a warrant issued by City Judge Huntington charging him with violation of that section of the highway law requiring the reporting of automobile accidents, pleaded guilty when arraigned in city court yesterday and was fined $10. Little failed to report a recent minor accident in this city in which he was involved. Chief of Police Horton desires to impress upon all motorists the necessity of reporting promptly to police headquarters all accidents, no matter how seemingly unimportant. The law is clear upon this point and violators will be arrested and punished.

MOST CROPS PAST DANGER.

Continued Warm Weather Makes Damage From Frost Improbable. The temperature the past week averaged slightly lower than last week and was near normal, according to the summary of weather and crop conditions for the week ending September 27, sent out from the Itasca office of the weather bureau. No frost damage has been reported thus far this season and most crops are now beyond danger. Showers were general on the 21st and 25th and were heavy in some sections, relieving the water shortage. High winds on the 21st and 22nd did some damage to orchards in Jefferson county.

Silos are now generally full. The corn crop was one of the largest on record for the state. Potato diggers continue, with varying reports as to yield, running mostly from poor to fair; a few sections report good. Most of the buckwheat has been out and good yields are reported.

Fall seeding continues wherever the ground is not too dry. Wheat is coming up in some sections. Pastures were somewhat improved but their general condition is still poor. The grape harvest is nearing completion.

Community Chest Discussed. At a meeting of the committees appointed to direct the community chest drive, held last evening at the community house, plans for the drive were discussed and various sub-committees appointed by Chairman E. W. Elmore. Following the community chest discussion a meeting of the Community association was held, at which plans for the formal opening of the Community house were developed. It is hoped to make this event, which will take place sometime next week, one of real importance.

RECKLESSNESS

VERY POPULAR

Care Has Become Out of Fashion, 'da Tarbell Tells National Safety Council

Boston Sept. 28.—Care has become out of fashion as much as a bicycle, while recklessness is as popular as an automobile, Ida M. Tarbell of New York told the delegates of the National Safety Council here tonight. "I am not here to talk about the new area of work which women in the war added to that already held," Miss Tarbell said, "but rather that it consider the possibility of rallying to the work of the Council a great body of women entirely outside of industry itself but responsive to appeals for public service and many of them organized in such a way as to focus power and influence quickly on tasks which appeal to their imaginations and to their hearts."

The psychological effect of the present indifference to safety in our streets and on our highways cannot be ignored by industry. The wanton recklessness of the road dulls the attention and interest of the industrial worker, puts a premium on taking a chance and becomes a part of the fashion as a bicycle—recklessness as popular as an automobile. That is public safety is the direct concern of Industrial Safety. The latter cannot accomplish its ends as long as the mental attitude it needs for its work is constantly weakened by wanton indifference to the former.

The woman power of the country must be enlisted. I do not know a finer job than to go after the women, particularly organized women.

"I understand the feeling of certain women that a woman in industry section is what you may call a throw-back that women should be taken into the safety council not as women at all but as industrial workers, regardless of sex. We have a long way to go socially, and industry in this world before women will cease to be differentiated from men in all activities. Mother Nature will have to undo her work entirely before there will be no special problems connected with women wherever you meet them. "It is the business of this section to handle whatever there is special in the problem, whether it is the best method of getting the obstinate girl at a dangerous machine to wear her cap, or having persuaded her to wear it to keep her bangs tucked in, or whether it is the big and definite problem that I am suggesting, enlisting the women of the country, organized and unorganized, in a public safety campaign.

Suppose that this section was able to rally in each state to work of industrial and public safety all of the great women's organized associations to persuade them to take up this work as a permanent interest, what a power we would have behind the National Safety Council! Properly put to them, they would rise to it like a flash to a fly. It is their kind of thing. If this Council is going into public safety work, as I hope certainly believe it is its duty to do, passing on to the public its splendid experience and achievement, it is going to need the women. And it ought to be the business of this section to help to capture them for this enterprise."
